The Lost Library Book

Read the story carefully. Then answer the five questions using complete sentences.

Mia loved visiting the library every Saturday. One week she borrowed a colorful book about animals from around the world. She read it on the bus ride home and showed it to her little brother. Later that day, Mia could not find the book anywhere. She looked in her backpack, under her bed, and even in the kitchen. Her mom helped search the living room. Finally, they found the book tucked between two couch cushions. Mia felt relieved and promised to keep better track of library books from then on.

1. What did Mia borrow from the library?

2. Where did Mia first read the book?

3. Name two places Mia looked for the missing book.

4. Who helped Mia search for the book?

5. Where was the book finally found?
